

Marne Oberg is the Head of HR at ACS Solutions. A proven leader with a history of success driving change and achieving business results, Marne has demonstrated the ability to assess organizational needs and initiate creative strategies to help companies achieve their objectives. Marne offers a comprehensive background in communications, public relations and marketing functions, combined with strong business acumen and experience in all aspects of human resources.

With almost 30 years of professional experience, Marne has been a part of the ACS team since 2013. Prior to ACS, she was the Vice President, Human Resources and Corporate Communications at Analysts International Corporation (AIC) – now a part of the ACS Group. Marne started her career in Communications as a Public Relations Manager at Fairview Health Services, and she continued show her remarkable talent throughout almost three decades in the field.

Her specialties include identifying, implementing and managing key initiatives and programs designed to support execution on a company's annual and long-term corporate strategic plan. Primary areas of focus include: Internal and external communications, change management, branding/messaging, collateral development, talent acquisition and management, training and development, compensation and benefits and employee relations.

Marne holds a Bachelor's. degree in Speech Communications from the University of Minnesota – Twin Cities.