

Sanjeev Sardana is the Chief Operating Officer of ACS Solutions. He is responsible for managing Corporate IT, Marketing, Legal, M&A, and Global Service Delivery Operations. Prior to joining ACS, Sanjeev co-founded Mobio, a mobile platform and applications development company where he was responsible for product management, applications development, fundraising, and international business development.

Previously, Sanjeev has held progressively senior responsibilities in product development, product management, marketing, and corporate development in the telecom and financial services industries.

Sanjeev has a B. Tech degree from the Indian Institute of Technology in Delhi, an MS degree in Computer Sciences from Washington State University, and an MBA from Columbia University.